New St. Catharines, Ont. waterworks branch now open for business

BURLINGTON, ONT. – Today, Brian Scott, general manager, Wolseley Canada, waterworks, Central Region, is pleased to announce the opening of the company’s Waterworks branch in St. Catharines, Ont. The branch, located at 23 Cushman Rd, is ready to service both the public and private sectors and provide a broad selection of products and services.

“The opening of our branch in St. Catharines now completes our geographic coverage of Ontario with respect to the Waterworks division,” said Scott. “We cater to contractors, municipal corporations, utilities, and industrial, and our branch comes with a wide range of products, as well as services, to meet our customers’ needs. We want them to feel satisfied with the level of service they receive.”

Jeff Lunny is the branch manager of Wolseley’s waterworks branch. Lunny joined Wolseley in April 2017 and has over 30 years of experience in the waterworks, and plumbing and HVAC/R industries.

The St. Catharines branch is part of a broader initiative, with Wolseley’s business units, to open new branches across Canada. Wolseley has recently opened new locations in Saint John, N.B.; Antigonish, N.S.; Lachine and Laval, Que.; and Concord, Ont.
