New Ottawa Plumbing and HVAC/R branch open for business

BURLINGTON, ONT. – Kevin Fullan, General Manager, Wolseley Canada, Plumbing and HVAC/R, Ontario and Atlantic, is pleased to announce opening of the new Ottawa Wolseley Canada branch. The Ottawa branch, located at 1050 Baxter Rd., Units 7A / 8A, Ottawa, Ontario, has been designed to include both plumbing and HVAC/R inventory in a 11,000-square foot facility offering customers an opportunity to source all the products they need at one location.

"We are excited to have a new location in the Ottawa West area," said Fullan. "As our business expands, we know it's important to have new locations designed to have all our products conveniently located in one place ensuring our customers have what they need to get the job done."

Conveniently situated off highway 417, the new Ottawa branch is part of our ongoing focus to revitalize our facilities through renovations and open new locations in order to enhance the customer branch experience and deliver exceptional customer value. Since the initiative began in 2016, Wolseley has opened new locations in Kitchener, Oshawa and Concord, Ont., Antigonish, N.S., Lachine and Laval, Que., and expanded our Windsor and Orangeville, Ont. locations.
