Wolseley Canada Announces Andy Mallon as Chief Financial Officer

(Burlington, ON). – Wolseley Canada is pleased to announce the appointment of Andy Mallon as Chief Financial Officer, effective September 9, 2026.

Andy initially joined Wolseley Canada from Wolseley UK in 2014. During his tenure in Canada, he advanced to a finance leadership role, before returning to the UK in 2018. Since his return to Canada in 2020, Andy has held Chief Financial Officer roles with ONroute, and most recently, Classic Fire + Life Safety, a leader in the fire protection industry.

“Andy has a deep understanding of Wolseley Canada’s business and has a strong record of driving performance and supporting long-term sustainable growth for the organizations he’s part of,” says Wally Quigg, President, Wolseley Canada. “I know he will be a welcomed addition to our Canadian Leadership Team.”

In his new role, Andy will oversee the finance team and lead Wolseley’s financial strategy.

“I’m thrilled to be back at Wolseley Canada,” said Andy. “I am looking forward to creating growth within the organization and working with a team of talented individuals.”
